THE FOUR POWERS TO REIGN OF DEATH AND RUIN SAYS TEMPS

Paris Newspaper Declares the Moment Has Arrived When Humanity Demands End of Mexican Warfare.

GEN. HUERTA RUNNING OUT OF AMMUNITION

Nearly 4,000 Rebels Leave Juarez for South and Heavy Fighting Is Expected Tonight or Tomorrow.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Paris, Nov. 29.—The Paris Temps today prints a vigorous editorial on the "crisis" in Mexico. The newspaper, in concluding the article says: "In the presence of death, destruction and ruin, the moment appears to have been reached when humanity and general interest commands all the powers to take concerted action with the United States to compel all parties in Mexico to lay down their arms and bring an end to the intolerable situation."

HUERTA FORCES RUNNING SHORT OF AMMUNITION

Hermosillo, Mexico, Nov. 29.—Information was received today at constitutional headquarters that ammunition had become scarce in Mexico City, and at other points held by the Huerta government. It was asserted that many garrisons in southern Mexico would be unable to resist attack because of the lack of ammunition or because of the irregularity of the calibre of such as they have.

Carranza and his military advisers were inclined to accept the report as true and encouraging to their cause.

NEARLY 4,000 REBELS LEAVE TO ATTACK FEDERALS

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 29.—Between 3,500 and 4,000 rebel soldiers had left Juarez at noon today for the south against the federals whom they defeated this week in a battle near Juarez. Pancho Villa personally supervised the loading of the troops. He expects to leave about Tuesday. Villa does not know whether the federals retreated to Chihuahua or have encountered themselves south of Juarez.
He has heard that the engineers leading the federal train did not lack of water and that the federals are awaiting his men at Villa Al-mada, 83 miles south of Juarez.
If so, a battle should be fought today or tomorrow.

ZAPATISTAS FIRE ON A PASSENGER TRAIN

Mexico City, Nov. 29.—Adherents of the rebel leader Zapata, fired on a passenger train today near Ajusco, a town a few miles south of Mexico City. The casualties were insignificant. The rebel band was one of the small scattering parties which have begun to appear in the federal district.

QUERIDO MOHENO, FOREIGN MINISTER, HAS GONE ON A TRIP TO TAMAULIPAS

Querido Moheno, foreign minister, has gone on a trip to Tamaulipas according to an unconfirmed report today. It is said that his principal object is to confer with John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson.

MEXICAN AGENTS SEEKING A LOAN IN BRUSSELS

Brussels, Nov. 29.—Mexican agents are seeking loans here. It is understood that Luis De la Haza, a financial agent in London of the Mexican government, has entered into negotiations for advances but has not been very successful.

THE PHILIPPINE BANK, WHICH IS BE- HIND THE RECENT RAILROADS COM- PANY, WHOSE CONFESSION FOR 2,200 MILES OF RAILROADS IS PENDING BEFORE THE MEXICAN CONGRESS, IS CONSIDERED AS THE CONCERN MOST LIKELY TO MAKE A LOAN TO PRESIDENT HUERTA'S ADMIN- ISTRATION. F. M. PHILIPPINE, HOWEVER, TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS TODAY THAT A MEXICAN LOAN COULD NOT NOW BE OBTAINED IN BELGIUM AS THE SITUATION WAS TOO UNCERTAIN.

SUIT IS FILED TO UNSCRAMBLE OCTOPUS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Baltimore, Md., Nov. 29.—Suits were filed today in the United States district court to dissolve the American Can company, the so-called tin can trust, which the department of justice alleges controls a large percentage of business in the United States in the can, container and package of tin. The American Can company is a defendant because of an allegation that it is alleged to have the American company to sell it the for sale at a preferential rate.

ALL BUT TWO OF STUBBORN RED MEN ON BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN SURRENDER TO GENERAL SHELTON WHEN TROOPS ARRIVE

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald.] Farmington, N. M., Nov. 29.—The Navajo rebellion is over, there has been no bloodshed, and the great Navajo chief, who has been on a beautiful mountain, declaring that the Navajo are the best of tribes, will submit to the power of the United States government. All but two of the Navajo who for two or three weeks have been hiding on a beautiful mountain have surrendered to General Shelton and his troops. The two who refused to surrender are the only ones who are still on the mountain.

THE INDIANS SURRENDERED TO GENERAL SHELTON AND HIS TROOPS LAST NIGHT. THE TWO WHO REFUSED TO SURRENDER ARE THE ONLY ONES WHO ARE STILL ON THE MOUNTAIN.

The Indians surrendered to General Shelton and his troops last night. The two who

THE WISDOM OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT IN SENDING GENERAL SHELTON HAS BEEN DEMONSTRATED, AS HE WAS ABLE TO DO MORE WITH THE INDIANS IN A FEW HOURS THAN OTHERS HAD BEEN ABLE TO DO IN MANY WEEKS. THE ARRIVAL OF THE TROOPS OF THE TWENTH CAVALRY, WHO HAD GONE TO THE ENCAMPMENT ON BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN AND HELD A LONG POW-WOW WITH THE NAVAJO IN THEIR OWN LANGUAGE.

The wisdom of the war department in sending General Shelton has been demonstrated, as he was in a few hours than others had been able to do in many weeks.

The arrival of the troops of the Twentieth Cavalry, who had gone to the encampment on Beautiful mountain and held a long pow-wow with the Navajo in their own language.

The government hopes to prove that for some time after organization the American company controlled about 85 per cent of the trade in tin. While the tin trade has been diminished, it is said now to be close to 50 per cent and the American company is declared to be the dominant factor in the business. The American Can company, the principal defendant, was incorporated in New Jersey with a capital of $88,000,000, and within a few months the government charges obtained control of about 100 can manufacturing concerns which formerly had been independent.

COMPANY NOT DISTURBED BY SUIT, SAYS PRESIDENT

New York, Nov. 29.—President Wheeler of the American Can company made the following statement today: "This company is not disturbed by the action of the government. Neither in its origin nor the conduct of its business has this company been in violation of the antitrust laws. There have been no agreements or understandings as to prices.
The company has no monopoly in the tin can business. It is free and active. The company will defend itself vigorously and confidently, and it is the belief of its officers and directors that no one interested in the company need feel any uneasiness as to the outcome."

PATTERSON ET AL APPEAL N. C. R. CONVICTION

Chicago, Nov. 29.—President John H. Patterson and 25 other officials or former officials of the National Cash Register company at Chicago, O., who were convicted last year of violating the Sherman antitrust law, filed in appeal in the United States court of appeals here today.
Patterson made the appeal. The other 24 defendants were represented by Howard Hollister, Jr., who was convicted in the same case and was sentenced to one year in jail and fined $5,000. Lesser sentences were passed on the majority of the other twenty-eight defendants at the time.

San Juan Garcia Examined on Charge of Killing Laguna Indian on Acoma Reservation

San Juan Garcia, after a hearing before United States Court Commissioner H. R. Whiting, was held today in $2,000 bail, charged with the shooting and killing of a 20-50 rifle early in the morning of November 26 of Albert Lewis, a Laguna Indian, on the Acoma reservation near Laguna. Garcia was brought in today by Deputy Alfred Delgado, who made the arrest. No evidence was adduced for the defense and with the consent of the United States district court the case was set for trial tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The evidence indicated that Garcia approached the house of Lewis shortly after midnight, leaving his rifle and coat some distance outside as if planning burglary.
